INTO THE WILD

This film is based on a true story, Christopher McCandless leaves a college education, material wealth and a seemingly bright future to head into the Alaskan wilderness. No one truly knows why he did this but this film traces his steps across the country, meeting and befriending dozens and his eventual death due to lack of preparation and knowledge of the harsh life of the wild.

The movie was directed by Sean Penn and stars Emile Hirsch, Catherine Keener, William Hurt and Vince Vaughn.

The book that this film is based on is available at the Library, please see a staff member to get a copy.

This program and the popcorn is free!
Registration is not necessary.

This film is rated "R" and children under the age of 18 must be accompanied by an adult.
