

Wishing Tree at the Campbellsport Public Library

Due to budget shortfalls this year, the Campbellsport Public Library was not able to provide the community members with as nice of a selection of new books, movies and magazines as we would have liked to. The Library, in particular, was incapable of purchasing enough children's picture books, chapter books for beginning readers and older elementary aged children, books for people who have difficulty reading small print and magazines for people of all age groups and interests.

We are hoping to fill some of the gaps in our collection with the promotion of a wishing tree. During the holiday season the Library will display a tree in our lobby with paper ornaments on it. The ornaments will have a book or magazine request on the back.

If you are able and willing to support your Library by choosing to purchase one or more of our requested items, you may purchase the items anywhere of your choosing and bring them into the Library or you can donate cash and the Library will purchase the item. If you would like a "donated by" or a "donated in memory of" plaque of in any of your donated items we would be happy to oblige your wish.

The Library will also gladly accept a donation of a book, magazine or movie of your choice or a general cash donation.

If you have any questions please call the Library or talk to a member of the Library staff at anytime.

Magazine and Used Book Donations and Sales

The library accepts donations of new and used books and magazines for our annual August used book sale anytime we are open throughout the year. A small selection of paperback books and current magazines are for sale at the Library throughout the year. Magazines sell for a quarter and books for fifty cents.
