

After School Activities for Children of All Ages

On Wednesday, December 10 at 4 pm kids of all ages are invited to the Library to watch Disney's cartoon WALL-E!

What if mankind had to leave Earth and somebody forgot to turn the last robot off? The year is 2700 and WALL-E is a robot still spending every day doing what he was made for. Soon he is visited by a sleek robot named EVE whom he chases across the galaxy with a pet cockroach and a heroic team of misfit robots.

Free popcorn will be served!

On Wednesday, December 17 children of all ages are invited to come to the Library anytime between 2 and 5 pm to create a couple of robot inspired crafts.

Both of these programs are free. Registration is not required.

Programs for Preschoolers

Every Wednesday morning at 10:30 am the Library hosts a story time program for children between the ages of 3 and 6. The children listen to stories, play a game and make a craft or share a treat. This month's tot time programs feature a Christmases around the world theme.

On Tuesday, December 16th at 6:30 pm the Library will be holding a special evening story hour program for younger children that features a Mexican Christmas theme. The children will listen to traditional Mexican Christmas stories, make a craft and of course celebrate the holiday with the breaking of a piñata.

These programs are free and registration is not required.

Tickets for the Campbellsport Public Library's holiday themed raffle are available for purchase.

This raffle bundle features a hand knit Christmas stocking. The stocking is knit in traditional Christmas colors and suitable for anyone on your gift giving list. Also included in the prize are two beautifully crafted handbound journals. The larger journal features an oak cover, a unique burgundy binding and numerous high quality paper pages for writing. The smaller journal is a perfect size to carry anywhere.

The cover is done in a classic red, green and gold pattern with a complimentary pattern inside the book. The basket also includes a high quality Bill Blass pen.

These raffle items would make the perfect holiday gift for any avid journal writer, list keeper, a budding poet or that hard-to-buy-for person who appreciates well-made hand-crafted items. Tickets for these items sell for $1 each. The winner of this raffle will be drawn on Saturday, December 20th at 9:30 am. Ticket holders need not be present to win.

The funds raised from these raffles will be used to enhance the resources of the Campbellsport Public Library.

The Afternoon Book Club

meets on

Tuesday, December 16 at 1 pm

to discuss the book

Silver Bells by

Luanne Rice

and to watch the

Hallmark movie based on this book.

This group meets every month on the third Tuesday at 1 pm to discuss the book, enjoy a cup of coffee or tea and to share a treat.

New members are always welcome to join in on the discussion. There are no fees. The Library staff selects the book for discussion and orders enough copies for each member to borrow.

A Show & A Chat

Monday, December 29 @ 5:30 pm

Starting Out In the Evening

Leonard Schiller is an aging New York author who wants to publish his fifth novel before he dies even though the world is not literary anymore. Graduate student Heather Wolfe seeks him out to write her thesis on him and encourage his writing. The May-December couple come to realize they have more in common than they thought in this complex and gentle love story.

This film is based on a book of the same title written by Brian Morton. Copies of this book are available for check-out at the Library. Please ask at the front desk for a copy. Reading the book is not a requirement to attend the showing. For interested parties, a discussion will follow the movie.

This program and the popcorn is free! Registration is not necessary. This film is rated "PG-13." Children under the age of 17 will need to attend this program with an adult.
