

Money Smart Week

Money Week is a state wide initiative to help build people's financial knowledge so everyone can deal with their own money quickly, confidently and shrewdly.

Sustain FDL County - Learn about ways to save money by "going green." Local people will be at the session to discuss what works and doesn't work.

Money Saving Health Tips - Renee Waters will talk about money saving ideas concerning health and wellness. She will also cover topics such as simple herbal recipes, even one to kill weeds. She will also demonstrate simple ways to relieve stress.

Shopping Strategies - This class will give you ideas on how to plan meals, understand food labels and how to keep food safe.

When There's a Drop in Income - You will receive help developing a spending plan and other tips for a dropping income.

Where Does My Money Go - Learn how to take control and manage your money better.

Understanding Credit - During this session you will learn about what credit actually is, the cost of credit and how to choose and use the right credit card.

Home Buyer Seminar - This presentation will cover the steps potential home buyers and sellers need to do to make a successful transaction.

Retirement Today - This informal workshop will answer financial questions about retirement. Topics such as leveraging you dollars today, turning savings into income streams and tax diversification to reduce future taxes.

Budgeting - Learn how to save money by budgeting.

Taxes for the Unemployed - This session will explain what job searching expenses may be potential tax deductions.

If you would like more information about this statewide program visit www.moneysmartWI.org.

The Campbellsport Public Library will be observing our freedom to choose what books we read during Banned Books Week, September 26 - October 3, 2009.

People age 9 and up are invited to stop by the circulation desk to pick up a brain teaser. If you turn in a completed and 100% correct sheet your submission will be added at the raffles. One child and one adult winner will be randomly drawn to each win a $15 gift certificate to Fireside Books.

Movie Madness

Wednesday, October 21 @ 4pm

Race to Witch Mountain

Jack Bruno is a cabbie who picks up two very special passengers. He ends up with young siblings who happen to have paranormal powers. The two are trying to get back to their space ship which is trapped inside Witch Mountain, a place where strange phenomena are known to occur. If the pair does not get to their ship in, an alien invasion will begin.

This live action movie is rated "PG."

This program is free. Free popcorn will be served. Registration is not required. Children under the age of 10 need to be accompanied by an adult and older children will need to be picked up immediately following the film.

A Show & A Chat

Monday, October 26 @ 5:30 pm

Of Mice and Men

With today's headlines inviting comparisons to America's economic hardships of the 1930s, director Gary Sinise explores John Stienbeck's timeless story of two friends who live on the fringes of American society. Horton Foote adapts Steinbeck's classic novel into a compelling and stirring work brought to life by a masterful cast.

This program and the popcorn is free. Registration is not required. The film is rated "PG-13." Children under the age of 17 must be accompanied by an adult.

The libraries in Fond du Lac County want to help local job searchers in their quest to find employment. During the month of October four different workshops will be held in the county that address the process of finding a great job.

The program that is being held at the Campbellsport Public Library on October 19th will feature the topic of how to interview well. The workshop will be taught by an employee of Moraine Park Technical College. This program is free to attend but it will require preregistration. Call (920) 533 - 8534 to register or to ask questions.

