Ashford's Cheese

A Presentation and Discussion with Karl McCarty
Wednesday, October 19th at 6:30 pm

Join us at the Campbellsport Public Library, grab a bag of popcorn and a soda and sit back to listen to a presentation of the research about the cheese factories of Ashford. This includes a major emphasis on John Babler's Ashford Cheese Factory (1920s-1947), as well as continuing research on the Johnson Cheese Factory and others of the Township of Ashford. Karl will present and discuss his research used for the recent articles published in the Campbellsport News and Kewaskum Statesman. Future articles on the topic are pending. He hopes that you will come to share your stories of Ashford's multiple cheese factories to help give a fuller perspective about these small businesses that faded in the mid-century.

This is a free educational talk about local history. Audience participation will be encouraged but it is not required. There will be plenty of time for questions. Registration for this program is appreciated but not required.

Bring your memories and your friends,
this is going to be a fun evening!
