SENIOR'S OPPORTUNITY FAIR

Thursday, April 20th 10am - 2 pm

Adults of all ages are invited to spend some time at the Library learning about a variety of topics from nearly 30 presenters. Visit booths with information about topics such as eye care, holistic health, travel opportunities, educational courses, volunteer opportunities, banking upgrades, financial and tax advice, and information on senior services from the county departments, plus much more. Attend mini lectures through out the day on a variety of topics. Watch for more details about the day in the local newspapers. This is a free drop-in program. Many of the presenters will be giving out door prizes.

Reminiscing with Karl McCarty - Strachota General Store

Monday, April 10th at 6:30 pm

Do you have fond memories of a small town county store? Join us to reminisce about the old general store in St. Kilian, which was run by the Strachota family in the first half of the 1900s. Numerous pictures and stories will be shared related to the old store business, including those of the surrounding area businesses, farms, and people.

Karl McCarty has spent the last few years interviewing many people about local history and is now sharing his findings. A series of articles by Karl are under construction for the Campbellsport News and the Kewaskum Statesman. The audience is invited to share their recollections to add to the documented history of the area.

This is a free presentation. Registration is not required. Free old time soda, candy, and popcorn will be served.

Bunny Bash! Tuesday, April 11th at 6:30 pm

Children of all ages are invited to celebrate the coming of spring by listening to stories, going on an egg hunt, playing games, and making a spring craft. As a special treat, Mr. and Mrs. Easter Bunny and Winnie-the-Fox will be stopping by to say hello. Parents make sure to bring your camera. This is a free drop-in program.

Essential Health with Kim Keceli
