Essential Health with Kim Keceli

Tuesday, February 16
5:30 pm

Kim will lead a session of Qi Gong that will focus on nurturing your heart. This will benefit people who suffer from heart attacks, insomnia, stress, high blood pressure or palpitations. The slow, flowing movements and diaphragmatic breathing of Qi Gong are known to calm the body and mind. Qi Gong has been practiced for thousands of years in China for a myriad of health reasons. Recent medical research has confirmed that it can lower blood pressure and improve heart function, among other benefits.

Kim Keceli holds a masters of science in Oriental Medicine and Traditional Chinese Nutrition. For more information about Kim visit her website at <http://www.essenceyou.com>

This is a free drop-in program.
Light refreshments will be served.

Color Me Calm

Monday, February 8th and Monday, February 22nd
Drop-in anytime between 5:30 pm - 7:30 pm

Who says coloring is just for kids? The latest artistic trend is coloring books for adults. They offer a fun and unique way to unwind and express Creativity, and can actually lower stress. Call your friends and join us at the Library for adult only coloring sessions. The Library will provide some coloring pages to choose from and a variety of colored pencils but please feel free to bring along your own specialty supplies.

The Library will serve tea and chocolate.
These are free drop-in events.

Free Movie - Free Popcorn

Bridge of Spies

Monday, February 29th at 1 & 5:30 pm

During the Cold War, an American lawyer is recruited to defend an arrested Soviet spy in court, and then help the CIA facilitate an exchange of the spy for the Soviet captured American U2 spy-plane pilot, Francis Gary Powers. This film is directed by Steven Spielberg and stars Tom Hanks.

This movie is rated "PG-13". Anyone under the age of 16 needs to attend this program with an adult.

Lego Lunacy

Did you get a new Lego set for Christmas? Did you put it together and it is awesome? Do you have a cool Lego creation on your dresser that is too neat to take apart? Lego Creators of all ages are invited to showcase their Lego creations at the Library during the month of February. Please drop off one or more of your creations during the last week of January and the first part of February so Library users can admire your handiwork. We have plenty of shelf space for both small and large creations. When you bring in your creation(s) we would like to take your photo for our Facebook page and possibly the newspaper. Submitters will need to sign a release form and they will be asked to collect their Lego creations the first week of March. If you have questions about this opportunity please call or Facebook us.

Day off of School Activities
Friday, February 19

Donuts & Duct Tape
10:30 am

School age kids are invited to the Library to make a one-of-a-kind duct tape creation while enjoying a donut. Sweet!

Free Movie - Free Popcorn
Goosebumps
1pm

A teenager teams up with the daughter of young adult author R. L. Stine after the writer's imaginary demons are set free on the town of Madison, Delaware. This live action film is rated "PG".

Afternoon Book Club

Tuesday,
February
16th at 1 pm

The group will discuss
Storied Life of A. J. Fikry
by Gabrielle Zevin.
