Annual Used Book Sale - The Selection is Amazing this Year

Monday, August 13th - Friday, August 24th Open Daily 9 am - 5:30 pm

We have collected a great selection of gently used books for adults and children plus movies, television series, and magazines to sell. This year, there is a great selection of craft books and westerns among many other topics that will appeal to readers of all ages and interests.

Prices will remain low again this year:

Hardcover adult books $1 Paperback and children's books .50¢ DVDs $2
Other items are priced to sell. Everything will be clearance toward the end of the sale.

Watch our Facebook page or call for details about clearance deals.

Volunteer help makes this fundraiser possible. If you can help with the set-up or take down please talk to a staff member. The Library accepts donations of gently used books, magazines, and DVDs throughout the year for this and other sales. The money earned from these fundraisers goes towards the purchase of new books and movies plus it helps support the activities that the Library provides for people of all ages throughout the year.

Free Movies for Adults in August - Free Popcorn!

The Major and the Minor

Monday, August 13th at 1 pm

New York working girl Susan Applegate is desperate to go home to Iowa but does not have the railway fare so she disguises herself as a child to ride half fare. In route she meets Philip Kirby, an Army major teaching at a military school and finds romance. This 1942 classic stars Ginger Rogers and Ray Milland.

The Book Club

Monday, August 27th at 1 and 5:30 pm

Four friends in a book club are inspired to spice things up after reading Fifty Shades of Grey. With each of them in a different romantic situation, the women gather inspiration. Reading it might be just the thing these women need to make over their love lives, from the bedroom to getting back into dating and rekindling an old romance. This film is rated "PG-13" and stars Diane Keaton, Jane Fonda, Candice Bergen and Mary Steenburgen.

Summer Decrescendo

Kids keep recording your time spent reading through August 5th. Make sure to collect all of your reading rewards from the area businesses by Friday, August 17th.

Kids are invited to the Library through most of August during the week to make crafts, find the guitar, participate in fun Wednesday activities and to watch a movie on Friday afternoons. Remember to keep reading and learning on your own even after the library activities end.

The Library would like to thank the following businesses for supporting the summer reading program:

Kelley Country Creamery, Blue Door Coffee Co., Piggly Wiggly, Ty's Place, King Pin Lanes, Schlaefer Optometrists and Kohn's Filling Station.

Memory Loss, Dementia and Alzheimer's Disease

The Basics

Wednesday, August 29th 4 - 6 pm

This program provides information that everyone should know about memory loss and what that means for all of us. Explore memory loss, dementia and Alzheimer's disease. Learn about the risk factors, research, treatments and steps to a proper diagnosis/assessment. Join us for this comprehensive overview.

This forum is hosted by Ginny Nyhuis, Regional Service Manager, Alzheimer's Assoc. of SE WI.

This program is free but registration is required.

For information or to register call 800-272-3900, email gnyhuis@alz.org or contact the Library.

ATTENTION STUDENTS OF ANY AGE

READ AWAY YOUR FINES

On the last 3 Thursdays of the month students of all ages are invited to spend some time reading at the Library to earn forgiveness of any fines you may have. You can earn $2 of fine forgiveness for every 1/2 hour you spend reading at the Library. Readers will also be given cookies when they are here. If you need to clear your card of fines before school starts but can't be here on a Thursday, talk to one of the Librarians.
