

Political Question and Answer Session & Book Signing
with Local Author, Karl McCarty

December 4 @ 6 pm

in the lower level meeting room at the library.

Karl McCarty, Campbellsport High School graduate and current Campbellsport School Board Member has just published his first book "The Last One Standing." His book follows the trail of 35 national politicians who all want to be President of The United States. McCarty highlights things done well and things done poorly, wise strategies and horrible mistakes. According to the book's description on Amazon.com, "it is the most complete and well documented book ever written on the political year before the presidential election year."
