 Free Showing of

Megamind

Wednesday, March 16th at 1:20 pm

After Super-villain Megamind kills his good-guy nemesis, Metro Man, he becomes bored since there is no one left to fight. He creates a new foe, Titan, who, instead of using his powers for good, sets out to destroy the world, positioning Megamind to save the day for the first time in his life.

Free popcorn will be served. Registration is not required. This film is rated "PG" but children under the age of 9 will need to be accompanied by someone older.

A Show & A Chat
 Monday, March 28th @ 5:30 pm

The Switch

In this offbeat comedy, Kassie, a smart, fun-loving single woman who despite her neurotic best friend Wally's objections, decides it's time to have a baby - even if it means doing it by herself... with a little help from a charming sperm donor. But, unbeknownst to her, Kassie's plans go awry because of a last-minute switch that isn't discovered until seven years later when Wally finally get acquainted with Kassie's cute, though slightly neurotic, son.

This film stars Jennifer Aniston and Jason Bateman.

This is a free program and registration is not required. Free popcorn will be served. Please feel free to bring your own drink.

This film is rated "PG-13" but anyone under the age of 17 needs to be accompanied by an adult.

After School Showing of

You Again

Monday, March 21st at 4 pm

When a young woman realizes her brother is about to marry the girl who bullied her in high school she sets out to expose the fiancée's true colors in this comedy.

This film stars Betty White, Kristen Bell, Sigourney Weaver and Jamie Lee Curtis.

This movie is rated "PG" but anyone under the age of 11 will need to be accompanied by someone older.

Registration is not required. Free popcorn will be served.

Special Showing of

Waiting for Superman

Monday, March 21st at 6 pm

From the Academy Award-winning Director of An Inconvenient Truth comes the groundbreaking feature film that provides an engaging and inspiring look at public education in the United States. Waiting For Superman has helped launch a movement to achieve a real and lasting change through the compelling stories of five unforgettable students such as Emily, a Silicon Valley eighth-grader who is afraid of being labeled as unfit for college and Francisco, a Bronx first-grader whose mom will do anything to give him a shot at a better life. Waiting For "Superman" will leave a lasting and powerful impression that you will want to share with your friends and family.

This is a free program and registration is not required. Free popcorn will be served. Please feel free to bring your own drink.

Look and Learn

Dr. Ann Schlaefer O.D., R.N.

will be at the Library on Monday, March 14th at 6:30 pm

Dr. Schlaefer will be educating people about the issues that can effect the health of eyes as people age. There are many diseases of the eye that can effect a person's quality of life, to name a few; macular degeneration, macular hole, double vision, dry eye or cataracts. There are steps people can take to maintain healthy vision. Dr. Schlaefer will talk about these steps plus she will also describe the warning signs of possible problems.

There are actions people can take to reverse these health issues. Dr. Schlaefer will talk about what choices people have if they are effected by eye ageing conditions. There will be plenty of time for questions.

This is a free program that is open to the public. Registration is not required. Light refreshments will be served.

The Library offers a wide selection of reading material for people of all ages.

New books arrive weekly!

We carry copies of all the best selling authors in fiction, non-fiction and children's books. The staff orders material in a variety of genres such as romance, comedy, western, historical, Christian and science fiction. We offer a collection of books printed in large type plus we carry a selection of audio books.

If you want a book we don't have please speak to a staff member so we can help you get what you are looking for.
