Letters to Santa

Mr. Claus has asked the Library to help him collect your letters again this year. Remember to tell him how good you have been this year and all about the presents you want. Make sure to include your name and address on your letter so Santa is sure to find your mailbox.

Letters should be placed in the special mailbox at the Library. We are collecting letters starting on December 1st. Please make sure to get your letter to the Library by Friday, December 20th so Santa Claus gets your request on time.

December Book Club Meetings

The Afternoon Book Club members will be discussing the classic novel Little Women by Louisa May Alcott at their 1 pm meeting on Tuesday, December 17th. After their short discussion the group will be watching the 1949 film version of the story starring June Allyson, Elizabeth Taylor, Janet Leigh, and Margaret O'Brien. This group is always open to new members. Copies of the book of the month are available at the circulation counter to borrow for free.

Kids in grades 5th - 7th are encouraged to join the Library's Tween book Club. Members are free to only attend discussions that interest them. At the 4 pm, December 17th meeting the participants will be reading and discussing a variety of holiday themed poetry. We will provide a variety of poetry to read but feel free to bring along a holiday poem you enjoy or write a festive poem of your own. They will also be making a holiday themed craft. An afterschool snack will be provided.

Children ages 12 and under are encouraged to join the

Cookie Club

Get a Cookie Club card and bring it with you every time you visit the library to borrow books or to attend an event. You will receive one punch each time you are here. When you have earned all eight punches you will receive a book bag and a bookmark.

When you return the books you have read to the Library come to the counter to receive a "cookie" to record your name and the title of the book you just returned. You will then be adding your cookie to our very large cookie jar. The kids who help fill our cookie jar will be invited to the Library on Wednesday, Feb. 5th at 10:30 am or at 3:45 pm for a cookie themed party. We will be playing games, decorating cookies and of course eating cookies with our special guest, Winnie-the-Fox.
